

'Music on the Menu'

Hello schools, parents and carers,

We are delighted to bring you our thirteenth edition of Music on the Menu. We have selected music activities that you might like to explore in the classroom, but that can also be shared with those who are learning at home.

Listening

Why not start the day by listening to beautiful music? Here is a piece of classical music written for guitar and orchestra that will help to calm and focus the mind.

Adagio from Concerto De Aranjuez

(Composer – Joaquin Rodrigo)

Key Stage 1

This week's song is called 'To the People Who Help Us' – a song encouraging children's awareness of the people who help keep our communities safe and happy. You can even say a special thank you to key workers with brand-new lyrics written especially for this time. To learn the song and explore the accompanying resources, please visit <https://www.singup.org/singupathome/song-of-the-week/?embutton>.

BBC Teach

Sun, Sea and Song is a music series based around the theme of the sea and can be used to support the KS1 topics The Seaside, Under the Sea and Pirates.

Join Nigel Pilkington and Suki - the ship's monkey - as they set sail in search of buried treasure...and enjoy plenty of songs along the way!

Key Stage 2

Explore David Walliams' Marvellous Musical Podcast series where he introduces children to the wonderful world of classical music and offers suggestions of other pieces children might like to listen to. To listen to these podcasts, please visit <https://www.classicfm.com/music-news/david-walliams-marvellous-musical-podcast/>.

This week – create a news bulletin with the help of CBBC's Newsround ...

Write and present a news bulletin about the life and work of composer Joseph Bologne, Chevalier de Saint-Georges using tips from CBBC Newsround presenter Hayley Hassall.

SEND

Each Sunday Pro Corda will announce which show they are going to focus on for the following week. This week includes songs from a variety of musicals in Musical Mash Up 2.

During the week videos of the songs will be uploaded so that young people can practise singing and signing at home. There will be yoga warm ups and instruction videos to teach some dance moves. As well as the current show, you can also find resources for previous shows such as The Greatest Showman, The Wizard of Oz, Lion King and Les Miserables.

LEAVERS

With the current situation of some pupils at school and some at home, planning for Leavers' celebrations is particularly tricky, requiring creativity and event organising skills extraordinaire.

It's Time to Fly is a beautiful leavers' song written by our own Emily Barden and you can find a performance track, backing track and scores on West Sussex Music's School Zone/Pitch and Singing. (This song is also available on Sing Up if you are a member.)

ONLINE TEACH MEET

Brighton & Hove Music and Arts recently organised online teach meets for primary and secondary schools in Brighton & Hove, West Sussex and East Sussex. It was lovely to see so many West Sussex Music teachers in attendance! Lots of useful ideas and resources were shared at these meetings – these will shortly be available on West Sussex Music's School Zone/Online Teach Meets June 2020.
